

Michael K. Guest Scholarship 2018

The Michael K. Guest Memorial Scholarship is established in honor of Michael Guest, a 1967 graduate of Pike High School. He is an alumnus of Indiana University and Indiana University School of Law. He dedicated his career to law and returned to Pike Township to live. Michael was driven for excellence, while his moral compass guided his choices in life. Nothing was more important to Michael than his family. He expected his family to be hardworking, honest, and demonstrate high character, just as he strived to do. Applicants for this scholarship should be prepared to express how they represent these characteristics.
